The Friends of the Hamilton-Fairfield Lane Libraries foster interest in books and libraries. Our goals include focusing public attention on library needs, facilities and services, stimulating gifts, and enriching the educational and cultural opportunities available to the communities served by the Lane Libraries.

BECOME A FRIEND
 TODAY!

A GREAT LIBRARY NEEDS
 MORE THAN
 BUILDINGS, IT NEEDS
 FRIENDS

By becoming a Friend you will have the opportunity to:

- Meet and network with people who share your interest in the library.
- Volunteer for Friends' events to benefit the libraries.
- Attend and assist with the annual Friends book sale.

Friends' gifts provide extra funds for:

- Summer reading programs for children and teens
- Adult programs
- Author visits and guest speakers
- Concert series such as Sunday Sounds and Reading & All That Jazz
- Enhancements to the library facilities and collections

Programs such as this are supported by the Friends.
